

Inequality and injustice

Well-Being Wednesday

At Wootton Park School we know that Wellbeing is just as much about standing up for others as it is about looking after ourselves. We have learned over the last three months just how sociable human beings like to be, and how difficult it is when we are isolated from others. With this in mind we have chosen this week to focus on the importance of standing together when our fellow man needs it most and would like to encourage you to think about the role we can all take in eradicating inequality and injustice.

At Wootton Park we stand against all types of
inequality and injustice

We stand against racism

“What we do outlives us”

Leaders in the African American Community

At this time, we are looking to the leaders of our communities to challenge the system and work towards change. In the fight for racial equality, this is nothing new. Educate yourself on prominent members of the black community who have fought for change throughout history and display your research in a fact file to help educate others.

Some examples of inspirational people include:

We'd love to see your work and to share it with the Wootton Park School family. Send us your work to info@woottonparkschool.org.uk.
