

Study Skills: Flash Cards

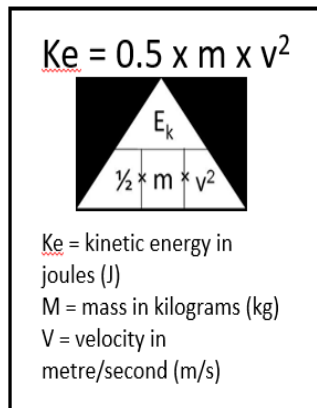

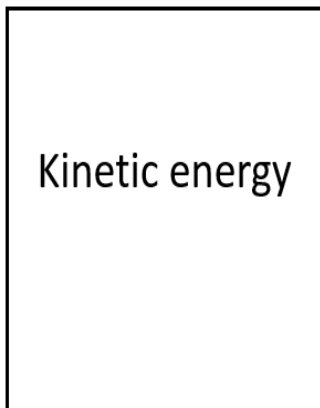

How to use flash cards?

You should use them for key information and facts. You can carry them around with you and test yourself anywhere.

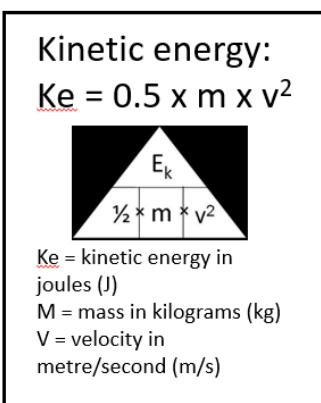

Use them to remind and test yourself on: spellings, vocabulary, lists, a sequence of simple events, dates, key terms and definitions, equations...

You could put the question on the front and the answer of the back:

Or the topic/question on the same side:

Just remember how you lay them out will effect the way you can use them.
