

Science Learning Journey

Through studying Science at Wootton Park School, learners will be able to recall scientific knowledge and apply it in a variety of contexts. Learners will be able to conduct practical work in order to collect data and interpret results. Learners will be able to discuss ethical issues related to science and the scientific process.

