

Separate Science Learning Journey

Through studying A-Level Biology at Wootton Park School, learners will be able to recall scientific knowledge and apply it in a variety of contexts. Learners will be able to conduct practical work in order to collect data and interpret results. Learners will be able to discuss ethical issues related to science and the scientific process.

WPS Science Journey

